SELECTED FILMS (IN AND OUT-OF COMPETITION) AND SHIPMENTS OF THE PRINTS

Films in competition

The selected directors will be informed by email in early September.

For each selected film, the festival requires a new DVD copy (which will be archived by the festival) and a screening print (35mm, .MOV, MPEG-4 H264 or Blu-ray Pal), if possible with French or English subtitles, before October 1st, 2015.

The shipment of the prints to Huy will be at the sender's expense and should be sent with pre-paid postage. The selection of a film implies that the film school/the producer or any authorized person sends, before September 15th 2015, his agreement for the screening of the film. No screening fees will be paid by the festival to the production or distribution companies for the films in competition.

The screening prints will be sent back within ten days following the end of the festival and at its expense. Les Enfants terribles reserves the rights to organize special screenings of the awarded films before returning the prints.

The festival will contract an assurance to cover the prints only from their reception to their re-shipment. In case of damage or loss of screening material during this period, the liability of the festival will not exceed the replacement value of the print.
